

TAIPEI DANGDAI FAIR ASSISTANT

Taipei Dangdai is seeking friendly and enthusiastic Fair Assistants to join the team during the inaugural edition of Taipei Dangdai. This is a fantastic opportunity to be part of Taipei's new international art fair with a flexible, rewarding, short-term commitment.

Fair Assistants can expect firsthand experience with the running of a large-scale international art fair, contact with industry leaders in the visual arts, exposure to the very best in visual art from Taiwan, Asia and the rest of the world.

ROLES

- Visitors meet and greet
- Information and ticket collection point
- Program: Salon, Talks, Installations

DURATION & LOCATION

Taipei Dangdai will take place in January 18-20, 2019 at Taipei Nangang Exhibition Center

- Wednesday 16 January - Exhibitor set up
- Thursday 17 January - VIP Preview and Vernissage
- Friday 18 January until Sunday 20 January - Fair Public Days

ESSENTIAL PREREQUISITES

- Availability for the week of the fair, Wednesday 16 - Sunday 20 January 2019
- High level of communication skills with the ability to liaise with a broad range of individuals in Chinese and English
- Keen interest in and/or knowledge of modern and/or contemporary art

DESIREABLE PREREQUISITES

- Previous experience in events
- Study in any of the following: arts discipline or related fields/events or related fields

BENEFITS

- Firsthand experience in event planning and management in the lead up to a large-scale international art fair
- Contact with industry leaders in the visual arts
- Exposure to the very best in visual art from Taiwan, Asia and the rest of the world
- Involvement in an exciting event on the Taiwanese Visual Arts calendar
- Complimentary entry to the Fair

HOW TO APPLY

Complete the Application Form and send your CV to:

Joyce Lin, jl@taipeidangdai.com