Lives and works in Taipei, Taiwan

Wu Tien-Chang received a Bachelor in Fine Arts from Chinese Culture University (1980). Wu's work reveals the contradictions of the photographic medium, with its apparent reality, yet often contrived and fictitious nature. He makes costumes, props, and backdrops for his elaborate and surreal sets and directs his actors to perform, as he did for We're All in the Same Boat (2002), which will be on view at our booth. He digitally recombined, deformed, and reshaped dozens of snapshots taken during carefully staged sessions, to create theatrical and painterly photographs. The resulting works depict surreal and haunting scenes, deeply steeped in Wu's interests in photographic theories and Taiwan's complex history and culture.

His work has been shown internationally, including at the Taiwan Pavilion, Venice Biennial (2015), the Taipei Fine Arts Museum, Taipei, Taiwan (2011, 2009, 1990, 1987); the Kaohsiung Museum of Fine Arts, Kaohsiung, Taiwan (2011, 2010); the Soho Photo Gallery, New York, New York (2010); the Hong Kong At Centre, Hong Kong, China (2010); Eslite Gallery, Taipei, Taiwan (2010); Art Beijing, Beijing, China (2009); Museum of Contemporary Art, Taipei, Taiwan (2009); National Museum of Fine Arts, Taichung, Taiwan (2009); the National Art Museum of China, Beijing, China (2009); the Taipei Cultural Center, New York, New York (2008); and MOMA Contemporary, Fukuoka, Japan (1997).
